The image shows the EU Energy Label for tires, which is a standardized format for providing information about the energy efficiency, wet grip, and noise of a tire. The label is divided into three main sections: fuel consumption, wet grip, and noise. The fuel consumption section shows a green arrow pointing to 'A', indicating the highest efficiency. The wet grip section shows a blue arrow pointing to 'B', indicating good wet grip. The noise section shows a speaker icon with '69 dB' and 'ABC' below it, indicating a low noise level. The label also includes the Michelin logo, the tire model '195/55R16 87 H', and the speed category 'C1'. A QR code is located in the top right corner.
